

How to Read the Bible

- Start with prayer. Sit quietly for a minute or two and ask God to speak to you as you read.
- Read slowly. Consider reading out loud, or listening to an audio version as you follow along in your Bible.
- Use your imagination. What if you were a shepherd on the Bethlehem hillside...a person in the crowd hearing Jesus preach...one of the disciples deciding how to respond to Jesus' invitation to become His apprentice?
- Don't read alone. Share your thoughts and questions in the ECC Princeton Bible Reading Group on Facebook, listen to Pastor Derek's devotional (Facebook, Wednesdays at 7 pm), or ask a friend to connect with you each week to share what you're learning and pray about it together.

ECC PRINCETON

Reading Scripture Together

For helpful overviews of the major sections and events of the book of Luke, we recommend watching a few short BibleProject episodes (5-8 minutes each). To find them, search for the title in the Bible app (YouVersion) on your phone or on YouTube, or join the ECC Princeton Bible Reading Group on Facebook.
